Sample Record

The diagram illustrates a sample record structure. At the top, the text "Sample Record" is centered. To the right, a callout line labeled "300" points to the right edge of a large rectangular box. On the left side of the box, a vertical list of numbers (302, 304, 306, 308, 310, 312, 314) is aligned with horizontal callout lines that point to the left edge of the box. The box is divided into two columns by a vertical line. The left column contains five rows, each with a label: "Record Number", "Name", "Address", "Social Security #", and "Birth Date". The right column contains two rows. The top row is labeled "Name, Address, Telephone #, Social Security #, Birth Date" and "Consent to Question 1" on the left, and "Consent to Question 2" on the right. The bottom row of the right column is empty.
